Mariemont Farmers Market Clauses

Vendors must confirm any dates they are not available at least 3 weeks in advance. If attendance becomes an issue, the Market Manager reserves the right to terminate the relationship with no refund of the vendor fees.

Vendors are to be creative and are able to differentiate themselves from the other Vendors. Exclusive rights, monopoly or protection will NOT be granted to any Vendor. We expect collaboration, support and solidarity among Vendors. This market is about the Vendors, their skills, knowledge, and products.

Mariemont Farmers Market is committed to clean, fresh and healthy, high quality foods. Please be prepared to tell us and the patrons about yourself, your growing practices, pest controls, animal husbandry, ingredients / supplies and craft. Be a proud merchant, promote and defend your work.

Liability Information

Mariemont Farmers Market shall not be responsible for any loss, damage, or injury to any property of any Vendor or any loss, damage or injury to Vendor booths or employees of Vendors, or friends and family, from any cause whatsoever.

Mariemont Farmers Market shall not be liable for any cost, expenses, loss or damage arising out of, or related to, personal injury; loss of, or damage to, or distribution of property of a Vendor; or failure to provide space for an exhibit, removal of same, or to hold event as scheduled.

All Vendors are responsible for any and all licenses required from the State and County Board of Health and must comply with such inspections, codes and regulations. This includes proper labeling as required for cottage foods.

Mariemont Farmers Market reserves the right to reject an applicant for any reason.
