

Celebrate the Centennial with Family Activities

To celebrate our deep heritage and to foster an appreciation and exploration of our Village history and unique assets, the Mariemont Preservation Foundation along with the Mariemont Centennial Committee have put together a number of centennial activities. These activities are designed to encourage individuals and families to get out into the Village this centennial year and learn about what makes Mariemont so special. These activities will be published here in the Town Crier throughout the year and are available in the pop-up box on the on the Village website at www.mariemont.org

The first such activity is “Where is this in Mariemont?” Below are pictures from around Mariemont. Can you identify where these are? You can download the form to complete, with your responses, in the pop-up box on the Village web site at www.mariemont.org Please submit your responses to centennial@mariemont.org.

Where is this in Mariemont?

Can you identify where each of these pictures was taken in Mariemont? You can download the form to complete with your responses in the pop-up box on the Village web site at: www.mariemont.org

Please submit your responses to by email to: centennial@mariemont.org

List the number of the picture and where you think it is; please include your name and phone number so we can follow up with prizes.

